

Leadership Essay: Hoover and Roosevelt

OBJECTIVE: SWBAT evaluate the positive and negative qualities of a specific leader and determine whether their leader effectively addressed and/or solved specific issues during his period in office.

Procedure

- Create a thesis statement that determines whether or not you think that your leader effectively led the country during his period in office.
  - You may take one of three different stances for your thesis:
    - You may state that your leader effectively addressed important issues to the best of their ability during his period in office.
    - You can state that your leader did not effectively address important issues to the best of his ability during his period in office.
    - You can state that your leader effectively addressed some issues, while ineffectively addressed other issues.

- Resources
  - You must site every source that you use for your paper.
  - You may use your notes on Roosevelt or Hoover as evidence to support your thesis.
  - You may use outside sources to support your thesis, such as your textbook, websites, and our library.
